

Politics Seminar Series

2014-15

24 September at 3:30-5:00, Politics Building, room G.22

Dr. Valentina Feklyunina (Newcastle) - Ukraine and Russia: Fighting for and against the 'Russian World'

15 October at 3:30-5:00 Politics Building, room G.22

Dr. Ruth Blakeley (Kent) - Perpetual Impunity: Lessons Learned from the Global System of Rendition and Secret Detention

12 November at 3:30-5:00, Research Beehive, room 2.20

Professor Gerry Stoker (Southampton) - Explaining political disenchantment

26 November at 3:30-5:00, Research Beehive, room 2.21

Associate Professor Kimberley Brownlee (Warwick) - The Lonely Heart Breaks: On Social Contribution Injustice

28 January at 3:30-5:00, Research Beehive, room 2.20

Dr. Inanna Hamati-Ataya (Aberystwyth) - Wissenssoziologie and its Implications for the intellectual, pedagogical, and social dimensions of social science/IR

11 February at 3:30-5:00, Research Beehive, room 2.20

Professor Graham Smith (Westminster) - Overcoming democratic myopia? (Re)designing institutions for the long-term

11 March at 3:30-5:00, Research Beehive, room 2.20

Professor Ben O'Loughlin (Royal Holloway) - Soft Power Over Who, For What? The National Interest after the New Public Diplomacy

29 April at 3:30-5:00, Research Beehive, room 2.20

Dr. Oliver Daddow (Leicester) – Could Britain Leave the EU? The Slow Death of UK Pro-Europeanism