John Ruskin said “The greatest thing a human soul ever does in this world is to see something and tell what it saw in a plain way. Hundreds of people can talk for one who can think, but thousands can think for one who can see. To see clearly is poetry, prophecy and religion, all in one.”

Life drawing in a Fine Art context is very specific, studious and serious. The sacred significance of looking and being looked at.

Draw (or paint, or sculpt) the figure, the human form. Taught class.
Bring your own materials.

No keen student will be turned away. No sign up sheet needed.
