Title

Outdoor Landscape Painting Workshop

Date

October 15th and 16th 2026

Please remember:

sign-up workshop etiquette applies:

book on up to a 1 x practice workshops in each semester

Workshop Organiser

Christian Mieves

Description

Year 2-4

It is a requirement to be available on the two days.

Meeting place will be confirmed.

In this workshop, we will explore the differences between indoor and outdoor approaches to painting by responding to the outdoor environment directly on site. The workshop will focus on acrylic and/or oil painting and how this can be facilitated outdoors. We will discuss ideas around composition, strategies to capture the environment (quickly) and different applications of paint.

This is an all-day workshop.

Please wear adequate clothes and bring material

e.g. acrylic or oil paint, brushes, paper, boards or canvas as preferred. Please check e-mail before as the workshop depends on weather.
