Description

This practical, hands-on session is aimed at fostering written communication skills necessary for sharing ideas and information.

This practical, hands-on session is aimed at fostering written communication skills necessary for sharing ideas and information with a general, non-academic audience in a clear and engaging way. We will focus specifically on writing captions for artworks in the context of museum and gallery education, but the skills will be relevant for other forms of writing in the context of exhibitions, including press releases and artist statements.

to those who can already evidence a need to better understand these techniques in your work.
