NEWCASTLE UNIVERSITY
FEES SCHEDULE
ACADEMIC YEAR 2017-2018

1 INTRODUCTION

This document contains information about the fees for programmes of study, for the academic year 2017/2018.

This document should be considered in conjunction with the University Regulations at <http://www.ncl.ac.uk/regulations/docs/> and the Credit Control Policy, which can be found at <http://www.ncl.ac.uk/students/progress/Regulations/Other/>

Fees are payable for each year of a programme of study, unless stated otherwise and are likely to increase in subsequent years.

Students studying English Language, Foundation or Pre-Master's programmes at INTO Newcastle University should refer to the information provided by INTO Newcastle University.

1.1 Student Loans

1.1.1 Undergraduate Students

UK and EU undergraduate students may choose to defer fee payment in part or in full until after they graduate, by taking out a fee loan through the Student Loans Company.

Full information about the Government's student loans for maintenance and fees is available in the University's Pre-Arrival Booklet sent to all new students and in the Student Handbook distributed to all new students at Registration.

Information is also available on government websites, see: www.dcsf.gov.uk/studentssupport/ or www.direct.gov.uk/studentfinance (and at equivalent websites for Scottish, Welsh and EU students) and from the University's website and the Guide to Student Finance at <http://www.ncl.ac.uk/undergraduate/finance/>

1.1.2 Postgraduate Masters Students

From 2016/17 the facility for home UK/EU students to take out a loan from the SLC has been extended to postgraduate students undertaking Masters' level courses. Postgraduate diploma or certificate courses are not eligible for funding.

Details of eligibility criteria can be found at <http://www.ncl.ac.uk/postgraduate/funding/sources/ukeustudents/mastersloan.html>.

1.1.3 Equal or Lower Qualifications (ELQs)

UK and EU applicants should be aware that, following changes to the way in which the UK government subsidises the study of UK and EU students, any applicant already in possession of a qualification at the same level, or higher, than the qualification they are applying to study, may not be eligible for support from the Student Loans Company.

The ELQ status of a student is assessed annually.

Exceptions:

Students in receipt of Disabled Students Allowance.

Students applying to register on the MBBS, BDS or a programme leading to RIBA recognised qualification in Architecture.

Students already holding a Bachelors degree, who are applying to register on an enhanced first degree at undergraduate level (eg MEng), for as long as they are registered on that degree. However, if a student already holding a Bachelor's degree and registered on an enhanced first degree, then transfers from their enhanced first degree to a Bachelor's degree, they will no longer be exempt.

1.2 Conditions

Fees for individual programmes can be viewed via the programme lists at:
<http://www.ncl.ac.uk/undergraduate/degrees/courses> for undergraduate study and at <http://wwwstage.ncl.ac.uk/postgraduate/search/list/courses/all> for postgraduate study.

Information on paying tuition fees can be found at:
<http://www.ncl.ac.uk/undergraduate/finance/tuitionfees/index.htm> for undergraduate study and at <http://www.ncl.ac.uk/postgraduate/funding/fees/> for postgraduate study.

A student who fails to pay tuition fees, or in respect of whom tuition fees are not paid by a grant-awarding body or other sponsor by the due date, and who cannot show reasonable cause and give a satisfactory assurance as to payment, will be excluded from further study in the University.

Under the regulations of the University, no degree, diploma or certificate shall be conferred upon any person owing money to the University.

1.3 Other Notes

These fees are composite fees and include registration, tuition or supervision, access to library and IT services, examination, re-examination as an internal candidate and graduation at one of the University's campuses. Composite fees do not include accommodation charges (for further information see <http://www.ncl.ac.uk/undergraduate/accommodation/>) and certain incidental charges. Additional fees and charges may arise from specific activities (see the section 13).

A student who's right to remain in the UK changes, will be eligible to pay the appropriate fee for their new residency status from the start of the next academic year.

2 DEFINITIONS

2.1 Fee Bands

Band 1 – applies to the majority of programmes in the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences and exceptional programmes in the other two faculties. This fee band applies to academic disciplines with a significant proportion of class-room based research and study.

Band 2 – applies to the majority of programmes in the Faculty of Science, Agriculture & Engineering, the Faculty of Medical Sciences and to exceptional programmes in the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences. This fee band applies to academic disciplines with a significant proportion of laboratory or studio based research and study.

Band 2a – applies only to individual postgraduate research programmes deemed by the Head of School to have a considerable element of intensive laboratory and/or fieldwork (this only applies to students not in receipt of a Research Training Support Grant).

Band 2b – applies only to individual postgraduate research programmes deemed by the Head of School to be substantially based on high-cost laboratory, clinical and/or fieldwork particular to the project (this only applies to students not in receipt of a Research Training Support Grant).

Band 2c – applies only to individual postgraduate research programmes deemed by the Head of School to be substantially based on very high-cost laboratory, clinical and/or fieldwork particular to the project (this only applies to students not in receipt of a Research Training Support Grant).

Band 3 – applies only to clinical medical and dental study and individual postgraduate research programmes deemed by the Head of School to be heavily reliant on sophisticated laboratory, clinical and/or fieldwork specifically tailored to the project (this only applies to students not in receipt of a Research Training Support Grant).

Band 4 – applies only to individual postgraduate research programmes which require specific and identified research costs, these costs to be identified and added to the standard band 3 fee and approved by the Dean of Postgraduate Studies (this only applies to students not in receipt of a Research Training Support Grant).

In exceptional cases, where a postgraduate research degree usually has a Band 2 or equivalent fee, but the specific research to be undertaken does not involve a substantial amount of studio, laboratory or clinical work, a lower international fee – normally Band 1 or equivalent – may be charged at the discretion of the Academic Registrar.

2.2 Home and International Students

Different fees are charged for Home UK/EU students and international students. Clarification of the eligibility of students to pay home fees can be found at <http://www.ukcisa.org.uk/>

Any student not eligible to pay Home UK/EU fees (or Island fees, as listed in paragraph 2.5, below) will be classed as International.

2.3 Distance Learning Study

Students studying by distance learning and paying a fee for each module, are required to pay the full module fee before they will be given access to the module support materials. Refunds to withdrawing students will only be granted for modules that the student has not commenced. This is defined as modules for which they have not accessed or downloaded any online materials.

2.4 Reciprocal Exchange Students

A person who was admitted to his/her course under arrangements with an institution outside the United Kingdom for the exchange of students on a fully reciprocal basis.

2.5 Island Students

A person who is domiciled in the Channel Islands or on the Isle of Man.

Standard undergraduate fees for Island students entering the university in 2016/17 or later are as follows:

The Clinical Years of Medicine and Dentistry (A100 and A206)	£19,250
All other programmes of study	£9,250

Postgraduate Students are charged the appropriate Home and Excepted Fee.

3 HOME AND INTERNATIONAL UNDERGRADUATE FEES

3.1 Full-time Home students

Students who commenced study at Newcastle in or after 2016/2017	£9,250
Students who commenced study at Newcastle in or after 2012/2013, but before 2016/2017	£9,000
Students who commenced study at Newcastle in or after 2006/2007, but before 2012/2013	£3,465
Students who commenced study at Newcastle before 2006/2007, or who deferred entry from 2005/2006	£1,380

3.2 Full-time International students

Band 1	£13,980
Band 2	£17,935
Band 3	£33,190

3.3 Placement year fees

Students undertaking a part year work or study abroad placement will pay the standard fee for their programme of study

Placement year for students who began their studies before 2012/13

- Full year work or study abroad placement £865
- Certificate in Architectural Practice £865

Placement year for students who began their studies in 2012/13 or after, but before 2016/17

Students on work placement or study abroad years that are additional to the standard duration of the degree and, if assessed, the assessment does not contribute to the final degree classification £1,000

Students on work placement or study abroad years that are fully assessed and contribute to the final degree classification, replacing a year of study in Newcastle (including, for example but not limited to, individual students on programmes F106, F107, F124, G406, H290, H815, L100, L161, Y001)

- Students studying for a full year overseas or on an ERASMUS work placement £1,350
- Students on a non-ERASMUS industrial placement year £1,800

3.4 Part-time students

A fee for each module will be charged at pro-rata the full-time rate, based on the number of credits. A maximum of 60 credits may be taken in any one academic year.

3.5 Undergraduate fees for repeating students

Undergraduate students permitted to repeat part or all of a year of study in attendance, shall pay the appropriate full-time fee if registering for more than 60 credits in an academic year. Students repeating 60 credits or less in an academic year shall pay the appropriate fee for the number of credits taken.

3.6 Medical and dental students repeating a part-year of study

Home students Fee equivalent to the appropriate payment schedule of the Student Loan Company

International Students Fee calculated weekly

3.7 Non-standard Fees

Fees for the first year of individual programmes can be viewed via the programme lists at:

<http://www.ncl.ac.uk/undergraduate/degrees/courses>

Continuing years' fees for the academic year can be seen at

<https://internal.ncl.ac.uk/planning/fees/tuitionfees.htm>

4 POSTGRADUATE FEES

Research programmes with a considerable element of high-cost laboratory work might, at the head of School's discretion, fall into Band 2a, 2b, 2c, 3 or 4 (see definitions of fee bands, above).

Part-time students are normally expected to receive tuition and/or be in attendance for up to half the hours per week applicable to students registered full-time for similar programmes. By default all part-time students will be charged on a pro rata basis to the full-time fee.

5 RESEARCH DEGREE CANDIDATES COMPLETING THEIR MINIMUM PERIOD OF CANDIDATURE AFTER 31st JULY 2009

Candidates who have completed their minimum candidature are regarded as being pending submission candidates. Those who request to extend beyond their maximum candidature are termed extended submission candidates.

- Pending submission candidates who have completed their minimum candidature, but who still require access to significant resources (e.g. access to laboratory and/or workspace facilities), to actively progress their research must register and pay the normal tuition fee for the programme. See (i) below.
- Pending submission candidates who no longer require access to significant resources will, after minimum candidature and for one year only, pay a reduced pending submission fee. See (ii) below.
- Extended submission candidates who no longer require access to significant resources will pay the fee listed in (iii) below.

It should be noted that if submission is earlier than the minimum prescribed period, the fees will still be required to be paid for the whole candidature.

Tuition fee rates

(i) All candidates requiring full facilities and support pay, whether within or outside of their candidature.	The normal tuition fee for the programme
(ii) Pending submission candidates requiring reduced support, part-time and full-time, who do not fall into category (i) above.	£0
(iii) Extended submission candidates, part-time and full-time, who do not fall into category (i) above.	£2,500

 Note: Candidates who are not actively engaged in continued research, and who have completed their minimum candidature, will be charged a zero fee for their Pending Submission Year. The decision about whether a candidate is eligible for the zero fee will be made on an individual basis, by the Faculty Dean of Postgraduate Studies. Candidates who are deemed to be still engaged in active research will pay a further full year fee.

6 FEES FOR STAFF CANDIDATES FOR HIGHER DEGREES FROM 2008 ENTRY

Employees of the University who have a substantive post with the University who wish to apply to undertake a part-time postgraduate programme may be eligible to pay the reduced staff rate for their programme of study. An employee undertaking a postgraduate programme must have permission of the relevant Head of School/ Service and Dean of Postgraduate Studies in addition to fulfilling the eligibility and academic criteria of the programme.

Note: For the purpose of agreeing a staff fee, a substantive post is defined as being a contract of employment of at least 25% FTE over a full 12 months period, and covering the annual period of registration. This does not include people who are Students of the university and gain part-time employment from the University, e.g. as demonstrators, General Duty Assistants, Laboratory Technicians, etc.

- a. Research degree programmes (this fee will be applied to all employees meeting the above criteria, including Research Assistants, Research Associates and Research Fellows).

The Staff Fee per annum will equate to 50% of the appropriate home programme fee (including 50% of any premium element), during candidature, while pending submission and during extended submission, the full fee will be charged.

Fees Schedule 2017-2018

It should be noted that if submission is earlier than the minimum prescribed period the fees will still be required to be paid for the whole candidature.

Note: The staff candidate fee for research degree programmes may also be available to those holding Honorary Senior Lecturer, Honorary Clinical Senior Lecturer, Associate Lecturer, Associate Researcher, Associate Clinical Lecturer, Associate Clinical Researcher, Associate Clinical Teacher or Knowledge Transfer Partner appointments with the University or those with substantive posts with Newcastle University Medicine Malaysia (NUMed Malaysia).

- b. Part-time taught programmes, where available (the availability of places for University employees will be determined by the relevant Degree Programme Director).

University employees are eligible to pay 50% of the standard home fee per annum, plus the total of any positive premium fee which has been added for the programme concerned. For programmes with Exempt fees, half the final fee will be charged. For programmes charged on a modular basis, the same principles will be applied, pro rata to the credit of the module.

7 ALL POSTGRADUATE TAUGHT STUDENTS AND THOSE POSTGRADUATE RESEARCH CANDIDATES WHO REGISTERED AS WRITING UP BEFORE 1ST AUGUST 2009

	full-time	part-time
'Full-time (writing-up)' fee for candidates for postgraduate degrees by thesis and postgraduate taught masters degrees by dissertation after the completion of the period of full-time or part-time registration prescribed by the regulations.	£750	£375

8 EXAMINATION FEES

DDS, DEng, DLitt, DSc, LLD, and MD students whose MD candidature was approved under pre-October 1994 regulations, pay the following fees for examination on each occasion of submission or re-submission. £1,700

9 FEES FOR STAFF CANDIDATES FOR HIGHER DEGREES FOR 2007 ENTRY AND EARLIER

Members of staff of the University who applied to undertake a part-time postgraduate programme in 2007 or earlier, in order to enhance their ability to carry out their current or agreed future work within the University and approved as eligible can pay the reduced staff rate for the postgraduate programme. Both full-time and part-time members of staff are eligible for the reduced rate, provided that they hold an appointment which extends to cover the prescribed period of registration for the degree.

- | | | |
|---|--|--------|
| a | Research Associates, ie Research Assistants, Clinical Research Associates and Fellows, and all Honorary Appointments:
Normal period of study (4 years for a PhD, 2 years for masters degrees) | |
| | Fee per annum (Year 10) | £2,000 |
| | Fee per annum (Years 11+) | £1,500 |
| | Shorter period of study (for those engaged full-time on their research) Fee per annum | £3,000 |
| b | Other University employed Academic staff candidates for research degrees by thesis: | |
| | On approval of candidature | £300 |
| | On submission of thesis | £700 |
| c | Masters' degrees by taught programme (part-time) per annum (Student regulations apply. Applicants should consult their Graduate School about the availability of these programmes.) | £550 |

*Note: Where the part-time fee for a specific taught Masters' programme is higher than the standard part-time postgraduate fee the staff fee payable will be the fee shown in (d) above plus the difference between the standard part-time postgraduate fee and the fee for the specific programme.

10 REPEATING STUDENTS

10.1.1 Undergraduate students

Undergraduate students permitted to repeat part, or all, of a year of study, in attendance, shall pay the appropriate full-time fee if registering for more than 60 credits in an academic year. Students repeating 60 credits or less in an academic year shall pay the appropriate fee for the number of credits taken.

10.1.2 Medical and dental undergraduate students repeating a part-year of study

Home students Fee equivalent to the appropriate payment schedule of the Student Loan Company

International Students Fee calculated weekly

10.1.3 Postgraduate students

Postgraduate students repeating a year, or a part of a year, shall pay a fee that is prorata the annual fee, based on the number of credits they are repeating, measured as whole modules. A student repeating only part of a module, shall pay the fee for the entire module.

11 OCCASIONAL STUDENTS

Occasional Students may study at either undergraduate or postgraduate level, but will not receive an award from this university for their studies.

Occasional student status does not apply to students registered under formal exchange agreements.

The occasional student fee for taught students will be pro rata the fee for the equivalent full-time award bearing course, based upon the level and credit value of the modules being studied.

The fees for an Occasional Research student (undergraduate or postgraduate) and any other student not studying modules, will be £150 per month for full-time study (£75 per month for part-time study) with an additional facilities/ consumables fee set by the Faculty.

All fees must be agreed in advance of the student's arrival.

12 STUDY ABROAD STUDENTS IN NEWCASTLE, NOT UNDERTAKING ENGLISH LANGUAGE TUITION

Study Abroad students (i.e. those not pursuing a programme leading to a named Award of this University but who will be assessed for the work that they complete during their time here) pay the appropriate full-time, international fee, less a 10% discount.

Fees Schedule 2017-2018

13 FULL TIME FEES FOR FUTURE YEARS

As a guide, part-time degree, postgraduate certificate and postgraduate diploma fees are usually set at a level that reflects the reduced number of credits studied in a year.

14 ADDITIONAL COSTS

14.1 Additional Academic Costs

14.1.1 Emergency Loan Repayments

Failure to repay emergency loans may prohibit a student from re-registering in a subsequent year, attending a graduation ceremony and receiving their degree parchment. All money raised from fines is credited to the Student Hardship Fund.

14.2 Additional Non-Academic Costs

14.2.1 Confirmation of acceptance for studies (CAS)

A CAS is required by most students from outside the European Economic Area (EEA) or Switzerland, applying to study in the UK, in order for them to enter the country. The CAS is a visa requirement, not a condition applied by the University. The University will cover the cost of issuing the CAS, but a charge of £100 will be levied for reissue, when the need for re-issue is a result of an error on the part of the student.

14.2.2 Membership of the Students' Union

Membership of the Students' Union does not entail payment of a separate fee.

The following expenses may occur in each year in which a student is registered.

14.2.3 Late Registration Fee

For any full-time, part-time or occasional students who register after the proper time, an additional fee of £65 may be charged at the discretion of the Student Progress Service.

14.2.4 Late Payment Fee

For late payment of the initial fee or for late payment of each fee instalment, including where agreed direct debit payment arrangements which have not been met, an additional fee of £25 may be charged at the discretion of the Finance Office.

14.2.5 Disciplinary Fines

All disciplinary cases are considered on their merits, but where students are found guilty of misconduct, fines and other charges may be imposed.

See: www.ncl.ac.uk/students/progress/Regulations/SPS/fines.htm

14.2.6 Undergraduate Fieldwork, Vacation Courses, etc.

The University seeks to minimise the additional costs incurred by students undertaking compulsory programmes of field work, field trips or visits.

- All compulsory visits, field trips and field work on compulsory modules or compulsory field trips or field work which has to be taken in a given year will receive some financial support from the University.
- All visits, field trips and field work in the UK that entail no more than one night away, will be met in full by the University.
- Compulsory trips and fieldwork in the UK extending beyond one night away will be supported by the university at the equivalent of £45 per night up to a maximum of £315 per student per field trip.
- Compulsory overseas trips and fieldwork will be supported by the University at the equivalent of £85 per night up to a maximum of £595 per student per field trip.

Students may expect to incur additional expenses for certain visits where the total cost is not covered by the University contribution.

The cost of optional visits and field trips/field work will normally be charged to students.

14.2.7 Deposits for keys and Smartcards

Deposits are required from students.

14.2.8 The Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) checks

DBS checks are required for students on some programmes. The cost of this (£43 per student) is paid by the School.

14.2.9 Immunisation costs

For some programmes certain immunisations are required prior to the start of the course. Students should refer to the programme handbook and school office for details.

14.2.10 Clothing

There are two categories of clothing that a student may require for a course:

- Clothing that students are expected to own, such as wellington boots and warm clothing must be provided by the student.
- Compulsory protective clothing, such as a laboratory coats, safety boots or goggles, which are required for the degree programme, will be provided by the School at no cost to the student.

14.2.11 Materials / equipment

Schools (primarily in Fine Art and Architecture) will provide or fund initial minimum materials/equipment requirements for students. Students will need to purchase specific additional materials for individual projects as appropriate.

14.2.12 Electronic devices

Electronic devices are not routinely provided to students. However, some academic units may give or loan devices to students, for specific purposes.

14.2.13 Library Overdue Charges

There is a charge payable on return of overdue library books. This money is used by the Library to purchase additional copies of those books most frequently requested by students.

14.2.14 Medical and Dental Students' travel for clinical training

Medical and Dental students are required to attend local hospitals and clinics for periods of time for clinical training and receive a travel bursary. Students should enquire at either the Medical or Dental Student Offices for full details.

14.2.15 Congregation ceremonies

Students who attend graduation ceremonies at one of the University's campuses are entitled to a free ticket for themselves and up to two guests. The costs of gown hire are paid by the student.

In addition, all students should be aware that there may be additional costs applicable to their programme of study for such items as books, instruments, equipment, materials, etc. Details of likely costs vary between subject areas and students should contact the appropriate Head of Academic Unit or nominee for further information.
