

Academy of Medical Sciences

North East Regional Event

Celebration of Success

14:00 - 18:00, Thursday 11 January 2018

Seminar Room, Baddiley-Clark Building, Faculty of Medical Sciences, Newcastle University

Agenda

14:00 Welcome

Professor Sir Doug Turnbull FMedSci
Council Member, Academy of Medical Sciences

14:30 Lecture: 'Controlling cortisol in degenerative disease'

Professor Brian Walker FRSE FMedSci
Pro Vice Chancellor for Research Strategy & Resources and Chair of Medicine at Newcastle University

15:00 Talks from Springboard grant award holders

Dr David Llobet-Navas: 'Characterising the miR-424/503 network in breast cancer'

Dr Suzanne Spence: 'An evaluation of food choice architecture on food and drink consumption in 11-16 year olds in Newcastle: a feasibility study'

16:00 MedSciLife talks from new Fellows at Newcastle University

'Walking the wheel the wrong way: A clinical academic's story'

Professor David Burn FMedSci Pro-Vice Chancellor and Professor of Movement Disorders Neurology

'From a GCSE and A-levels disaster to Dean of Research!'
Professor Derek Mann FMedSci, Chair of Hepatology

17:00 Drinks reception

The Celebration and drinks reception are free to attend.

Click here to register

For further information, please contact:

Professor Christine Harrison FMedSci
Regional Champion, North East
Academy of Medical Sciences
christine.harrison@newcastle.ac.uk