CALL FOR ARTICLES

Send us a short proposal outlining your intended article on the theme of

LIMITS

Submit your max. 150-word proposal to:
react.mag.team@gmail.com
no later than Friday 14th September 2018

Check out previous issues of {react} as a guide to the kind of content we publish. You will find copies of the magazine distributed around campus and online at blogs.ncl.ac.uk/react/magazine/

Proposals must not exceed 150 words maximum and should be written within the body of an email rather than as an attachment

Please ensure you have obtained any necessary permissions from any supervisory staff or research groups prior to submission

We try to include as many submissions as possible, but publication is not guaranteed. However, if we feel an article is not a good fit for the current issue of {react} magazine, you may instead be offered a chance to contribute to our blog, or have your submission held on file for publication in future
