

External Examiner Professional Development Course

with

AdvanceHE

What is it?

Newcastle University is supporting any colleague involved or interested in External Examining to undertake the Advance HE Professional Development Course.

The course will lead to a recognition from Advance HE and will consider the role of the External Examiner in the UK Quality Code for Higher Education and develop your ability to use evidence-informed approaches to contribute to impartial, transparent judgements on academic standards and enhancing student learning.

Who is it for and why do it?

The course is aimed at academic and professional service colleagues who have or are hoping to have a role that includes External Examining either in this institution or in other HEIs in England, Scotland, Wales, Ireland or Internationally.

Not only is it a professional development course but on completion it can be used in evidence for promotion, and you'll be listed on the Advance HE's External Examiners Directory website to make it easier for HEIs to find suitable examiners.

When is it and how long will it take to complete?

The course begins on Monday 13th September 2021. You will complete five units over two months. Each unit takes 2-3 hours to complete plus 4 hours of online contact with the team (Jolein De Ridder, Sara Marsham, Richard Harrison and Paul Fleet).
