

Philosophy Film Screening

Being in the World (Tao Ruspoli, 2010)

Friday 26th October 2018 1pm–3pm in MERZ.L301

A cinematic introduction to the work of Martin Heidegger, and particularly the notion of being-in-the-world as developed by the American philosopher, Hubert Dreyfus.

Please come along!

{Warning: this film contains scenes of Jazz.}

Future events

Week 6 Tuesday 6th November 2018, 3pm–5pm, Brian O’Connor (University College Dublin), On Idleness, BSTC.2.51

Week 10 Friday 7th December 2018, 2pm–5pm, ‘Philosophy and the Body’, Philosophy Student Conference, tbc.

Week 11 Friday, 14th December 2018, 1pm–3pm: Film Screening: Vita Activa (on Hannah Arendt), in MERZ.L301

Contact: Michael Lewis (Philosophical Studies). Michael.lewis@newcastle.ac.uk